

Trail Maintenance at Olympic National Park

Total In-Kind Value in 2013 in excess of $50,000

- BCH Washington members contributed approximately 1,300 hours of volunteer-related labor at Olympic National Park in 2013 maintaining trails for hikers and horsemen.
- Their volunteer labor represented an in-kind value of at least $33,891 (half estimated at the unskilled vol. labor rate of $22.14/hour; half at the skilled volunteer labor rate of $30.00/hour).
- Adding use of privately-owned vehicles (POVs), BCH Washington volunteers traveled 2,900 miles for project-related to efforts at Olympic National Park that represents:
 - @ $0.90/mile = an in-kind value of $2,610 for POV plus,
 - 2,200 miles hauling stock @ $1.10/mile for an in-kind value of $2,420.
- BCH Washington volunteers also contributed approximately 140 “stock-days” at Olympic National Park in 2013. Stock-days are conservatively calculated at $100/day, or in-kind services using stock worth $14,000.
- The above items reflect a value of at least $52,921 for total in-kind contribution of labor, POV and stock- days by BCH Washington volunteers in 2013 alone.
